McLeodUSA Center: Future Home of the Panthers

The University of Northern Iowa received the largest gift in the institution's history when Clark and Mary McLeod, on behalf of McLeodUSA, donated $4 million to help build a new sports arena on the UNI campus.

According to UNI President Robert D. Koob, this is the lead gift to support construction of the McLeodUSA Center, which will become the primary performance venue for UNI intercollegiate men's and women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling.

"This arena will be the first visible element of a collaboration between UNI and McLeodUSA to promote student excellence," said Koob. "Other elements of this collaboration may include internships, technology enhancements, scholarships and other opportunities."

"UNI is committed to its students and to serving the state of Iowa," said Clark McLeod, chairman and chief executive officer, McLeodUSA. "We have a similar commitment. Our future growth will depend on our ability to attract and retain people who are willing to grow, who value relationships, and who have the passion and commitment to be the best they can be. Iowa needs to keep these people here in the state. We see this gift as an investment. It's an investment in the University of Northern Iowa and it's an investment in future opportunities for all Iowans."

According to UNI Athletic Director Rick Hartzell, the arena will contain approximately 5,000 to 6,000 seats and will be located on the campus's west side, near the UNI-Dome and Wellness/Recreation Center. Once funds are secured, construction is expected to take approximately 24 to 36 months.

"UNI has some of the best student athletes, coaches and teams of any institution in the Midwest," said Hartzell. "What we don't have is a facility to match our people in these programs. The McLeodUSA Center will be one of the best of its size in the nation; an outstanding facility in which to showcase our quality student athletes and athletic programs."

The McLeod gift also is the lead gift to the UNI Foundation's "Students First" campaign – the next phase of a recent, highly successful scholarship campaign that exceeded its goal, raising $14 million. The new, broader "Students First" campaign will focus on scholarships, academic programs and facilities.

"This facility will serve the communities of the Cedar Valley," said Bill Calhoun, UNI vice president for Advancement and president of the UNI Foundation. "Similar to the Gallagher-Bluedorn Performing Arts Center, the McLeodUSA Center will be another result of a successful private/public partnership between UNI and the Cedar Valley."

New construction covered by the Students First campaign will include the McLeodUSA Center; R.J. McElroy Hall, the university's new early childhood education facility on the Allen College campus, in Waterloo; and a human performance center. Facilities needing renovation or equipment are Russell Hall, Lang Hall and McCollum Science Hall.

According to Calhoun, the official campaign kickoff will take place in 2002. The university's last major campaign ended in 1995, raising more than $33 million, and exceeding its goal of $25 million.

A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Team Success

In 20 years of Gateway and Missouri Valley Conference competition, Northern Iowa has posted 20 or more victories 17 times, captured 11 conference titles, appeared in nine NCAA Tournaments and three N.I.V.C. Tournaments. Last season, UNI advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years, knocked off then-no. 3 Wisconsin and finished 16th in the final national rankings. In 1999, the Panthers made their first trip to the Sweet 16 and finished 15th in the final national poll. UNI has compiled a 437-90 overall mark in the last 17 years, 218-25 in conference play, and has reached the national top 25 in 1995, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001. UNI's streak of 66 consecutive conference wins from 1997-2001 is fourth-best in NCAA history.

Excellence in the Classroom

Three UNI players have been named Academic All-Americans a total of six times. Mary Bernhardt was a three-time First Team Academic All-American from 1985-87, while Kate Galer was a first team pick in 1996 after earning third team honors the previous season. Kris Schroeder was honored on the second team in 1989. Since the Missouri Valley Conference instituted its academic all-conference squad in 1992, Northern Iowa has had 28 selections to the first team, including 10 in the last three years.

Individual Honors

Conference, region and national honors have become commonplace for UNI players. In the past 17 years, the Panthers have had 66 all-conference selections, including seven league Players of the Year and 38 first team selections. Eleven Panthers have been voted to the all-district or all-region team. Setter Shannon Perry became UNI's first-ever all-American in 1999 when she was voted to the AVCA's second team, while former head coach Iradje Ahrabi-Fard was named National Coach of the Year by his peers in 1999. Rookie head coach Bobbi Petersen was named Central Region Coach of the Year this last season after leading the Panthers to their second Sweet 16 berth.

Great Fans

The Panthers consistently have ranked among the national leaders in attendance in recent years. The 2001 home attendance average of 1,592 ranked 16th in the nation. The friendly confines of the West Gym helped the Panthers to a phenomenal 134-5 record since 1990, including eight undefeated home seasons and a 50-match home winning streak from 1992-96 that ranks tied for sixth in NCAA history. UNI's current streak of 48 consecutive home wins is the nation's longest active string entering this season, and is the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

Expectations Higher Than Ever for Veteran Panther Squad

With five starters back from last year's team that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament and finished the year ranked 24th nationally, never have expectations been higher for the University of Northern Iowa volleyball team.

The Panthers not only are expected to win an unprecedented fifth consecutive Missouri Valley Conference title, but also have earned a more prominent spot on the national stage than ever before.

They are ranked 14th in both the American Volleyball Coaches Association and Volleyball Magazine's preseason polls, easily the highest preseason position in school history.

So how much bigger can the bullseye be on UNI's back? Although all the preseason hype is somewhat new to her squad, Panther coach Bobbi Petersen says the high expectations are a good problem to have.

"It's a different position to be in," she says. "As far as the conference goes, we've been in that position (as the favorite) before and dealt with that, but being picked that high nationally in the preseason is something new for us."

"We have high expectations for ourselves, but we're just going to take the same approach as always...plug away one game and one match at a time," she added. "People will have high expectations, but we're the ones who know what we have to do and we're the ones doing the work."

Petersen, voted the Central Region Coach of the Year in her first season as permanent head coach, has put together the strongest schedule in school history for her squad, which may make it difficult to duplicate last year's 31-2 mark.

UNI will open the season with the unusual distinction of playing its second top-ranked team in a row -- over two seasons. The Panthers ended last year with a loss at then-no. 1 Long Beach State and open the 2002 campaign in the NACWAA State Farm Challenge against Stanford, the nation's no. 1 team and defending national champion.

The Panthers also are slated to meet at least three other top 20 teams in Florida, Pepperdine and UCLA along with Minnesota, a team they beat in the second round of last year's NCAA Tournament.

"Playing a strong schedule like this has been a goal we've had," said Petersen. "We've earned a lot of respect over the last two or three years and are able to play some of these teams and not just be a chump match for them."

"To be able to finally have a schedule like this is exciting...we've played some tough teams before, but not as many in one year. Our kids are the type that are just dying to play matches like that," she added.

The Panthers are talented and deep, making it hard to single out individuals. But when you're named the Player of the Year as a sophomore in a conference as strong as the Missouri Valley, the recognition is bound to head your way.

That's the spot junior Molly O'Brien finds herself in after also being voted to the all-region team a year ago and earning an invitation to train in the USA Volleyball National program over the summer, one of just 20 collegians selected.

O'Brien enjoyed a season like few others in school history a year ago, taking the league's top individual honor while also being voted to the all-Central Region squad and ranking fifth nationally in blocking with a 1.70 average per game.

And Petersen thinks O'Brien is just scratching the surface.

"I think even last spring Molly jumped to a whole new level," says the UNI coach. "Her conditioning is incredible. She's really starting to understand what it takes to be a top Division I player. Her experience with USA Volleyball over the summer is just going to take her to a new level."

First team all-conference outside hitter Kim Kester is back for her final season after leading the league in kills a year ago with 479. The '99 Valley Newcomer of the Year roared back from a sophomore season in which she saw part-time action to become one of the top players in the MVC.

Kester tallied double figures in all but five matches and had 20 or more kills five times, including a career-high 28 against Bradley and 21 in the NCAA win over Minnesota.

"Kim's a positive part of our team for a lot of reasons," Petersen said. "Besides being one of the most explosive players we have, she's just someone who has a lot of energy and our team feeds off that."

"We're hoping she'll step into a leadership role," she added. "She already leads by example with her love of the game and her great competitiveness. Besides being a great player, she brings so much more to the team with her other qualities."

When it comes to setting the table for the Panther offense, junior Jill Arganbright has continued the UNI tradition of outstanding setters. Already a two-time first team all-conference performer, she shattered her own single-season assist mark a year ago and is well on pace to break the UNI career mark held by former all-American Shannon Perry.

"She continues to get better all the time in terms of her confidence and running the offense," said Petersen. "She takes control of the match and besides being a great setter and being able to distribute the ball well, she's very offensive, which is a big plus for us. Other teams have to be aware of her wherever she is on the court."

Senior defensive specialist Miranda Weber returns to the back row after starting every match and playing in all 117 games last season. She ranked third on the squad with 288 digs and provided UNI with outstanding defensive play and one of its most reliable servers, posting 31 aces to 17 serve errors, the best ratio on the team.

With new rules in place this season that will allow for more liberal substitutions, Weber's role figures to be even more important for the Panthers.

"You can't have a good program without someone like Miranda," says the Panther coach. "Now with the new rules put into the game, she will have more of an impact just because she'll be on the court more. She has to be a constant in order for us to win."

Joining O'Brien in the middle will again be junior Michelle Burvee, giving the Panthers one of the top blocking tandems in the Valley.

Burvee has ranked in the top 10 in the conference in each of her first two seasons and, as she did as a freshman, showed tremendous improvement during her sophomore year. She averaged 1.04 blocks per game and became more of an offensive presence as well, placing fourth on the team with 219 kills.

"Michelle is another one of those who last spring really started to get it as far as what it takes to be successful at this level," noted Petersen. "I think she's someone who's going to be a powerhouse right from the start for us and that will be crucial."

Sophomore Shari Vermeer was a key contributor last year in her first season and will be counted on to pick up where she left off, as she averaged a pair of kills per game in her last 11 matches and hit at a .411 clip.

"Shari really came through for us in some big matches down the stretch and I think this year she's going to be someone who people will have to worry about right from the start...someone that's really involved in the offense," Petersen said.

The Panthers suffered a major loss with the graduation of all-region outside hitter Kim McCaffrey, a team captain last year and the team's inspirational leader. She ranked among the conference leaders in kills and digs, becoming only the fourth player in school history to reach 1,000 for her career in both categories.

While losing McCaffrey is a concern, Petersen has some very capable candidates lined up to battle for the position.

Entering preseason practice, the main competition appears to be between sophomore Jessi Worrell and redshirt freshman Rachel Tink.

Worrell saw limited action a year ago, almost exclusively in the back row, while Tink was a highly-recruited prep who sat out last season.

"Rachel is one of our most powerful hitters, but she needs to develop some consistency in being able to see the block," said Petersen. "Jess is somebody who over the last year has really developed the consistency part, maybe not as strong a hitter as Rachel, but has gotten more consistent."

Sophomore Abby Lemek played in all but three matches a year ago, mostly in the back row, but could see an increased role. Another sophomore, Erin Hirsch, will most likely serve as Arganbright's back-up at setter and will continue to see action in the back row.

Redshirt freshman Steph Germann will look to make an impact in the middle in her first season. At 6-3, Petersen said her development could give the Panthers some real flexibility with their primary blockers.

Brand new faces on the scene include junior college transfer Jenny Walter, and freshmen Patricia Dietz and Trista Humpal. A defensive specialist, Walter joins the program from Kirkwood Community College. Humpal is an all-state middle hitter who will likely redshirt, while Dietz is a defensive specialist.

While expectations are higher than ever, Petersen and her team welcome the challenges of the 2002 season with plenty of firepower and another ingredient the UNI coach thinks will continue to key her team's success.

"I think team chemistry has been a big strength for us and that still can be strong for us," she said. "We feel like that wins games. They care about each other, they care about being a Panther and I think that goes a long way."

"We're incredibly excited...I know expectations are high, but we're ready for that!"

Jill Arganbright

HEAD COACH BOBBI PETERSEN

When thinking about the tradition-filled history of Northern Iowa volleyball, few names jump out like that of second-year head coach Bobbi Petersen.

Voted UNI's Gateway Conference Volleyball Athlete of the Decade in 1992, Petersen was appointed to replace the retired Iradge Ahrabi-Fard as UNI's head coach for the second time in four seasons on April 25, 2001. Petersen went 18-9 in 1997 as interim head coach while Ahrabi-Fard was serving as a consultant for USA Volleyball.

"I am absolutely thrilled and so excited to be named the head volleyball coach at the University of Northern Iowa—one of the premier volleyball programs in the nation," said Petersen at her hiring. "Today, I fulfill a dream and goal of being a head volleyball coach, and an even greater dream of being the University of Northern Iowa head coach. I am very thankful to the many people who have supported me in reaching these goals."

Prior to her appointment, Petersen spent six seasons as an assistant at UNI. In her role as assistant coach, Petersen was responsible for all aspects of the Panthers' program, including recruiting, camps, scheduling, fundraising and scouting.

In her first season as the permanent head coach, Petersen guided the Panthers to a 31-2 overall mark and their second appearance in the Sweet 16 in the past three seasons and was voted Central Region Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association.

UNI captured its fourth consecutive Missouri Valley Conference title with a 17-1 mark and placed four players on the all-conference first team. When the Panthers came from behind to beat SMS in the Valley title match, Petersen became the first person in conference history to win the title as a player and head coach.

In addition, the Panthers knocked off third-rated Wisconsin on their home floor, marking the highest-rated victim ever for a UNI volleyball team.

As a player at UNI from 1986-89, the former Bobbi Becker was a three-time first team all-conference selection and two-time first team all-region pick.

Although it has been more than a dozen years since she last donned a Panther uniform, she still holds eight school records and places second in 10 other categories.

Her 40 kills in a 1989 match against Illinois State not only is tops in UNI history, but also stands as the all-time Missouri Valley/Gateway Conference record.

A native of Dike, Iowa, Petersen also holds school records for career and season digs with 1,457 and 471, respectively. She also compiled 1,611 career kills and a 3.41 career kill average.

In 1996 and 1997, Petersen played professionally for the Iowa Blizzard in the National Volleyball Association, earning All-Pro honors along with teammate and current assistant Barb Randall.

Petersen earned her bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation in 1990 and her master's from UNI in physical education in 1992. She served as a graduate assistant with the Panthers in 1990 and after completing her master's, was employed as a therapeutic recreation specialist in Fort Smith, Ark., and Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Petersen and her husband, Duane, reside in Dike with their twin daughters, Baylee and Sydney, who were born in February, 2000.

ASSISTANT COACHES/ SUPPORT STAFF

Assistant Coach
Barb Randall

Barb Randall is in her second season as the top assistant to head coach Bobbi Petersen.

Prior to her appointment, Randall coached at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where she was an assistant with a team that reached the finals of the NJCAA Division II national tournament in 2000.

Randall's coaching experience at the college level also includes the 1996 season as an assistant at Purdue. She also served as the head coach at Cedar Rapids (IA) Jefferson High School from 1998-99 and West Branch (IA) High in 1995.

Randall enjoyed a great career as a player at Iowa from 1987-90 under her maiden name of Barb Willis. While at Iowa, she helped the Hawkeyes go 82-50 while earning all-Big Ten honors three times. A 1990 Volleyball Monthly honorable-mention All-American, she set school career records with 557 blocks and a .260 attack percentage, marks that still stand.

Following her days at Iowa, Randall was a member of the US National Team from 1991-93 and played professionally in Italy in 1993-94. She also played professionally with the Iowa Blizzard in the National Volleyball Association, earning Defensive Player of the Year and All-Pro honors.

Assistant Coach
Kim McCaffrey

Former Panther standout Kim McCaffrey has traded in her uniform for a clipboard and coaches' shirt. McCaffrey joins the Panther staff this season as a graduate assistant after completing an outstanding playing career a year ago.

A native of Carroll, Iowa, McCaffrey helped lead UNI to its second NCAA Sweet 16 appearance last season, earning first team all-conference honors for the third time and being selected for the all-Central Region squad.

A team captain, McCaffrey was one of three Panthers to collect 400 kills last season with 410. She also led the team in digs with 379. McCaffrey ranked in the top 10 in the Missouri Valley Conference in kill average (3.50), dig average (3.24) and service ace average (0.39).

She finished her career with 1,272 kills, good for fourth on UNI's career chart, and 1,015 digs, placing her fifth. She also is only the fourth person in school history to go over the 1,000 mark in both career categories.

In the classroom, McCaffrey was a two-time first team Scholar-Athlete selection in the Missouri Valley.

Assistant Coach
Mary Bernhardt

A former teammate of Bobbi Petersen, Mary Bernhardt returned to UNI a year ago as an assistant coach, a position she also held in Petersen's interim year of 1997. Bernhardt's resume also includes assistant volleyball coaching positions at Iowa State (1991-92), Western Illinois (1990) and her alma mater, Dike High School.

Bernhardt was a four-year starting setter for the Panther volleyball team from 1984-87, leading the team in assists all four years. During her tenure at UNI, she was a three-time first team GTE/CoSIDA Division I Academic All-American, was voted the 1987 Gateway Conference Most Valuable Player and was named the first ever Reebok Volleyball Student Athlete of the Year.

In addition, she led the Panthers to two straight conference championships and NCAA appearances, earned all-conference honors three seasons and played in the 1987 East/West All-Star Classic in Stockton, Calif.

Her uniform number (#7) has been retired at UNI and she was inducted into the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union Volleyball Hall of Fame in 2000. She's also the only volleyball player to be inducted into the UNI Athletics Hall of Fame.

Panthers Reach Sweet 16 for Second Time in Three Seasons

The winning never gets old for the University of Northern Iowa volleyball team, but there comes a point when nothing about their success surprises even the most devoted Panther fan. And so it was in 2001 for the Panthers as they advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three seasons.

Along the way, they captured their fourth consecutive Missouri Valley Conference title, compiled a 31-2 mark, beat the third-ranked team in the nation and settled at no. 16 in the national rankings. All this was accomplished under first-year (sort of) coach Bobbi Petersen, who was named Central Region Coach of the Year despite being snubbed by the Valley coaches in their balloting.

Most observers figured the Panthers wouldn't skip a beat when Petersen was handed the reins to the program in April following the retirement of long-time coach Dr. Iradge Ahrabi-Fard. Petersen had served as interim coach for a year in 1997. It didn't take long for her first team to make its mark.

UNI jumped out of the box quickly by winning the New Mexico Invitational on Labor Day weekend with victories over McNeese State, UTEP and the host Lobos. The next weekend gave the first hint that maybe something special was brewing in Cedar Falls as the Panthers beat Saint Louis, two-time NCAA foe Ball State and third-ranked Wisconsin on its home floor to win the Badger Invitational. That victory marked the highest-ranked victim ever for a Panther volleyball team.

Missouri Valley Conference play opened Sept. 15 against Evansville in the first of what turned out to be 14 straight home wins for the Panthers, which carried them to 48 in a row at home by season's end. UNI cruised through the conference slate, hitting one bump in the road at Bradley, where the Braves handed the Panthers their first conference loss in four years covering a span of 66 regular-season MVC matches.

They eventually notched a 17-1 league mark and entered the Valley Tournament as the top seed. After an easy 3-0 win over host Illinois State, UNI struggled in the final against SMS, but bounced back from match point in the fourth game to pull out a 30-17, 25-30, 28-30, 31-29, 15-8 win and earn its ninth trip to the NCAA Tournament.

The Panthers landed a host site for the first and second rounds of the NCAA's and welcomed DePaul, Minnesota and Northern Illinois to the West Gym. After downing Northern Illinois, 3-0, in the opener, the Panthers faced Minnesota in a second-round matchup that turned out to be one of the all-time great matches in school history.

Seemingly left for dead after dropping the first two games to the Golden Gophers, UNI rallied for a thrilling 26-30, 21-30, 30-21, 30-19, 17-15 win and a trip to Long Beach State to face the top-ranked 49ers in the Sweet 16. The Panthers couldn't muster enough to challenge the eventual national runners-up, but went a long way toward entrenching the program even further on the national volleyball scene.

During the season, sophomore middle hitter Molly O'Brien established herself as one of the premier players in the nation, winning Valley Player of the Year and all-Central Region honors. She was one of four Panthers named to the all-conference first team, joining senior Kim McCaffrey, junior Kim Kester and sophomore Jill Arganbright.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN IOWA

Building on a strong tradition of teacher education, the University of Northern Iowa has evolved into one of the finest comprehensive public universities in the country. UNI emphasizes excellence in undergraduate education and offers selected graduate programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The university offers a learning environment that is small enough to provide students individualized attention, yet large enough to provide a variety of resources, including distinguished faculty.

Students First

Today, UNI offers more than 120 undergraduate majors. Outstanding academic programs, many of which are nationally-recognized for their excellence, have been established in the colleges of Business Administration, Education, Humanities and Fine Arts, Natural Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. In addition, UNI participates in the bachelor of liberal studies program offered by Iowa's Regent Universities and provides classes in centers around the state through the division of Continuing Education and Special Programs.

Recognized as the premier public undergraduate university in the state, UNI is experiencing an increasing demand for its high-quality programs. Enrollment at UNI was 14,070 students in the fall of 2001, the fourth consecutive year of record enrollments. Students come from every county in Iowa, 46 states and 57 countries.

The University of Northern Iowa was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. It became Iowa State Teachers College in 1909. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature changed the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

HIGHLIGHTS

- UNI has ranked second in Midwest top public comprehensive universities by U.S. News and World Report for five consecutive years.
- The 2002 Sears Directors' Cup ranked the UNI Panther athletic program 25th in the nation last spring. Presented annually by the nation's athletic directors and sponsored by Sears, the Cup honors institutions that maintain a broad-based program and achieve success in men's and women's intercollegiate athletics.
- UNI is the alma mater of NFL and Superbowl MVP Kurt Warner, as well as U.S. Sen. Charles Grassley.
- UNI's Residential Network, ResNet, provides high-speed network computing to students living in the residence halls.
- UNI students are active and involved with more than 180 student organizations, including special interest clubs, sororities and fraternities, religious groups and academic groups.
- The UNI Wellness/Recreation Center, attached to the north side of the UNI-Dome, features the highest climbing wall in the Midwest, two pools, a running track, weight and fitness rooms, and courts for basketball, volleyball and racquetball.

STUDENT PROFILE

- Average age of undergraduates: 21.5
- Average age of graduate students: 34.1
- ACT scores of entering freshmen: scores of 21-25 (51%); scores of 26 or above (24%)
- Percent of student body from Iowa: 94.9

THE WEST GYM--WHERE THE MAGIC HAPPENS

Nestled in the heart of UNI's picturesque campus is the West Gymnasium--home to UNI volleyball, wrestling and women's basketball.

Built in 1925 for a mere $180,000, the West Gym annually ranks among one of the toughest places to play for opposing teams. Tremendous fan support combined with an outstanding program have delivered a 48-match home court winning streak entering 2002, best in the nation.

Last season, besides going a perfect 14-0 in matches at home, the Panthers dropped just six games all season in the friendly confines. That success is nothing new, though, as UNI is a remarkable 134-5 (.964) in the West Gym since 1990, including undefeated seasons in 1991, '93, '94, '95, '98, '99, '00 and '01. In fact, the Panthers are 92-3 at home against conference foes since joining the MVC in 1993.

Last season, UNI averaged 1,592 fans to rank 14th nationally. To purchase tickets to attend a UNI home volleyball match, call (319) 273-DOME.

THE MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

The new millennium brings challenges for college sports programs, but the Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics' most progressive conferences. Now in its 96th year of existence, the Missouri Valley Conference emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the Conference has been assertive in its approach to playing host to NCAA basketball championship events, producing a revenue-generating in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to several sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

Under the direction of J. Douglas Elgin, the ninth commissioner in Valley history, The Valley has played host to the 1993, 1998 and 1999 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regionals, the 2001 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Final Four and the 2002 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball First/Second Rounds. In fact, The Valley plays host to two NCAA men's basketball events in the next three years.

On June 25, 1998, The Valley and the St. Louis Local Organizing Committee were tabbed by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee to play host to the 2005 Final Four (April 2 and 4) at the Edward Jones Dome. Along with the 2005 award, The Valley will serve as host for the 2004 Midwest Regional at the Edward Jones Dome.

The oldest athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, The Valley has been cutting edge in the area of its television network.

Beginning in 1993-94, The Valley took its television network in-house and began to produce, syndicate and sell a televised package of regular-season and tournament events for distribution on local broadcast and national cable networks.

The Valley Television Network includes a package of more than 30 men's and women's basketball games and selected other tournament championship events that air on ESPN, ESPN2, Fox Sports Net, and on statewide cable systems and local broadcast stations throughout the Midwest.

Starting in 1995-96, the Conference broke new ground by bidding out the right to play host to its volleyball, women's basketball, softball and baseball championships. By establishing uniform host criteria, the Conference is able to assist a host institution in a season-long promotional campaign and provide an avenue where hosts can acquire a title sponsor and achieve a profit for the event.

Continuing in 2002, the Conference's women's and men's soccer championships will be held at a neutral site -- SportPort in St. Louis, Mo. -- for the third-straight year, with Iron Kids Bread -- a division of the Sara Lee Bakery Group -- serving as the title sponsor for both events.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who gathered at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball.

This season, the league will conduct its 92nd outdoor track and field championship, its 85th tennis championship, its 49th baseball tournament and its 65th golf championship for the men.

Those programs, plus other current sponsored sports of cross country (44 years), indoor track (36), soccer (12) and swimming and diving (9), have helped solidify the Missouri Valley Conference as one of the most respected conferences nationally.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and a 1989 national baseball championship. In 2001, Southwest Missouri State added to The Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis.

The Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

The Valley, which has a storied past, began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the Conference began its athletics Hall of Fame.

Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class.

A total of 25 former players, coaches and alums dot the league's Hall of Fame.

The inclusion of women's programs under the Valley banner -- the nation's second-oldest collegiate athletic conference -- has provided an immediate boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

The 2001-02 academic year was, arguably, one of The Valley's greatest, as the league received a total of four at-large bids to NCAA championships -- one each in men's soccer, men's and women's basketball and baseball -- and sent four teams -- men's soccer, women's volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball -- to the round of "Sweet Sixteen" in their respective NCAA championships.

In men's soccer, Southern Methodist and Creighton represented The Valley in the NCAA Tournament, with SMU -- which ranked first nationally in the NSCAA/Adidas poll for most of the season before finishing fifth -- advancing to the quarterfinals before concluding with a 21-1 record.

In women's volleyball, Northern Iowa advanced to the Sweet Sixteen for the second time in three seasons, posting victories over Northern Illinois and Minnesota and claiming 16th place in the final AVCA Coaches poll.

And for the first time in league history, The Valley had both a men's and women's basketball representative reach the round of Sweet Sixteen in their respective NCAA Tournaments in the same season. For the women, Drake -- which finished 20th in the final USA Today/ESPN poll -- defeated Syracuse and won at Baylor, while on the men's side, Southern Illinois -- which finished 22nd in the final USA Today/ESPN poll -- upset Texas Tech and Georgia.

The Valley also continued to cement its claim as one of the premier baseball conferences, as both Wichita State and Southwest Missouri State participated in the 2002 NCAA Tournament. Since 1980, 42 Valley teams have played in the NCAA Tournament, with nine of those teams advancing to the College World Series in the last 18 years.

Bradley became the first league team to play in the CWS in 1950, while Wichita State, which captured the NCAA title in 1989, has now represented The Valley in 15 of the last 16 NCAA baseball tournaments and reached the College World Series in six of the last 14 seasons. Former Wichita State greats Carter (1981) and Darren Dreifort (1993) were named collegiate players of the year.

The Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, SMS's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda Award, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete.

In the sport of track and field, Indiana State's Holli Hyche captured seven national sprint titles in the 1990s, and Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992. While at the 2002 NCAA indoor championship, Illinois State's Christian Goy captured the mile run, becoming the 17th male national champion in league history.

In fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year.

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, The Valley will always continue to be pro-active in its approach.

League members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, Southwest Missouri State University and Wichita State University. Affiliate members include Drury University (women's soccer) and Eastern Illinois, SMU, Tulsa, Vanderbilt and Western Kentucky (men's soccer).
